

Washington Funeral Resources & Education

Making Washington Home Funeral Information Easy to Find

www.WashingtonFuneral.org

Did you know?

In Washington, no one is required to purchase the services of a funeral director or funeral home. Families who choose to retain custody and control of their loved one after death may:

- Keep a loved one at home or other private venue for visitation or ceremony
- Bathe and dress them
- File the death certificate
- Make arrangements for burial or cremation, and any funeral or memorial ceremony
- Transport in the family car or truck

If you didn't know... you're not alone.

Many people don't know about the rights of families to care for their own dead—even first responders, care facility, and funeral industry pros. That's why www.WashingtonFuneral.org, a new, free public information website, is being lauded by medical and funeral industry leaders as a much-needed resource for both families and professionals.

Help Inform Others

Here's how you can help:

- Tell friends, family, and your health care providers about this free web resource
 - Share the link to www.WashingtonFuneral.org via social media and on your website
 - Include www.WashingtonFuneral.org alongside local funeral home listings
 - Download and distribute our For Professionals one-page training documents
-

Washington Funeral Resources and Education is a non-commercial public interest site dedicated to helping Oregon consumers care for their own dead with or without the assistance of a funeral director

www.WashingtonFuneral.org